Brigitte,
This has been an exciting year.
all due to your craziness. You have really brightened my day when I needed it the most.
But now we must go on and supposedly become more mature.
I hope you find success &
happiness in the future.

Love,
Marla

DEDICATION

short time ago,
in a school
not far away . . .

It is a period of many conflicts. Seniors voting from isolated lunch tables have united in dedicating the 1983-84 Chestnut Burr to a teacher who has helped guide them through their transition into adulthood. During the election, Senior Commanders managed to collect secret ballots which have enough power that graduates will look back on many years from now and remember the man they chose. Pursued by the force of ignorance, Prince Zimmer races home aboard his Sentra, preparer of the knowledge that can save his students and send well-educated men and women out into the world.

SPIRIT WEEK THIS

POLTERGEIST

MY FAIR LADY

ALL THE SCHOOLS A STAGE

Eddie Hargreaves and Trish Smullen were voted to have the best personality of the CLASS OF '84.

Voted most punk were Renee Reckley and Rafe Keeney, someday they might own the Commander Salamander store.

THE MAN WHO LOVED WOMEN, starring Pat McHugh and co-starring Tracy Baker as Pat's leading lady won the nomination for most flirtatious.

Most likely to be seen together were John Blumerhour and Steve Brandenburg, they do everything together. Below Johnna Zink and Davis Lovell are WALKING TALL and proud, as they were voted most distinctive walk.

Anne Harshman and Lisa Droneburg were also voted most likely to be seen together, they do ABSOLUTELY everything together! Below, Todd King and Andrea Boyes are doing ALL THE RIGHT MOVES by being voted most athletic.

Paul Kostreski and Gina Palmer hardly look DRESSED TO KILL but they did get voted best dressed for the 1984 graduating class. Below Teresa Wolfe and Curtis Sines came away with being voted most shy, shhhh, don't say anything they might get red.

Two of a Kind

Eric Wolfe and Renee Reckley starring in ALTERED STATES were voted changed best since ninth grade.

Kevin Stottlemeyer and Anna Moschanas starring in GONE WITH THE WIND, did not win an award because they truly were gone with the wind.

Winning an academy award for best actor and actress are Kevin Stottlemeyer and Anna Zink. Below, some real RISKY BUSINESS around MHS is hall hanging, but by Saucier and Jack Markey got away with it and the vote for biggest hall hanger.

Having ABSENCE OF MALICE, Eddie Hargreaves and Trish Smullen were voted to be best all around. Above, Jeanine Wiles and Keith Baumback get credits for credits, Most Artistic.

Most likely to succeed, Anthony Wolfe, and Mary Lee Thompson, are sure to give a winning performance in EASY MONEY.

Trish St. Andre and Pete Philipone were auditioned for parts in the movie ONLY WHEN I LAUGH because they had the brightest smile at Middletown High School.

Ruth Ann Holter and Kevin Long were voted most studious and were smart enough not to get involved with THE MAN WITH TWO BRAINS.

The movie MUSIC MAN fell into luck when finding Anthony Wolfe and Nicki Phelps the most musical at Middletown.

Ryan Daiger and Amy Redifer have become the preppiest of them all in the smashing thriller ALLIGATOR.

Dee Philipone and Kristi Virts produce the hot BODY HEAT in the senior class so naturally they got sexiest body.

FUNNIEST LAUGH — Karen Kline, Ronnie Toms
BIGGEST BROWNIE — Ruth Ann Holter, Anthony Wolfe
BEST DANCER — Lisa Droneburg, Ryan Daiger
MOST SCHOOL SPIRITED — Robanne Palmer, Kurt Johnson

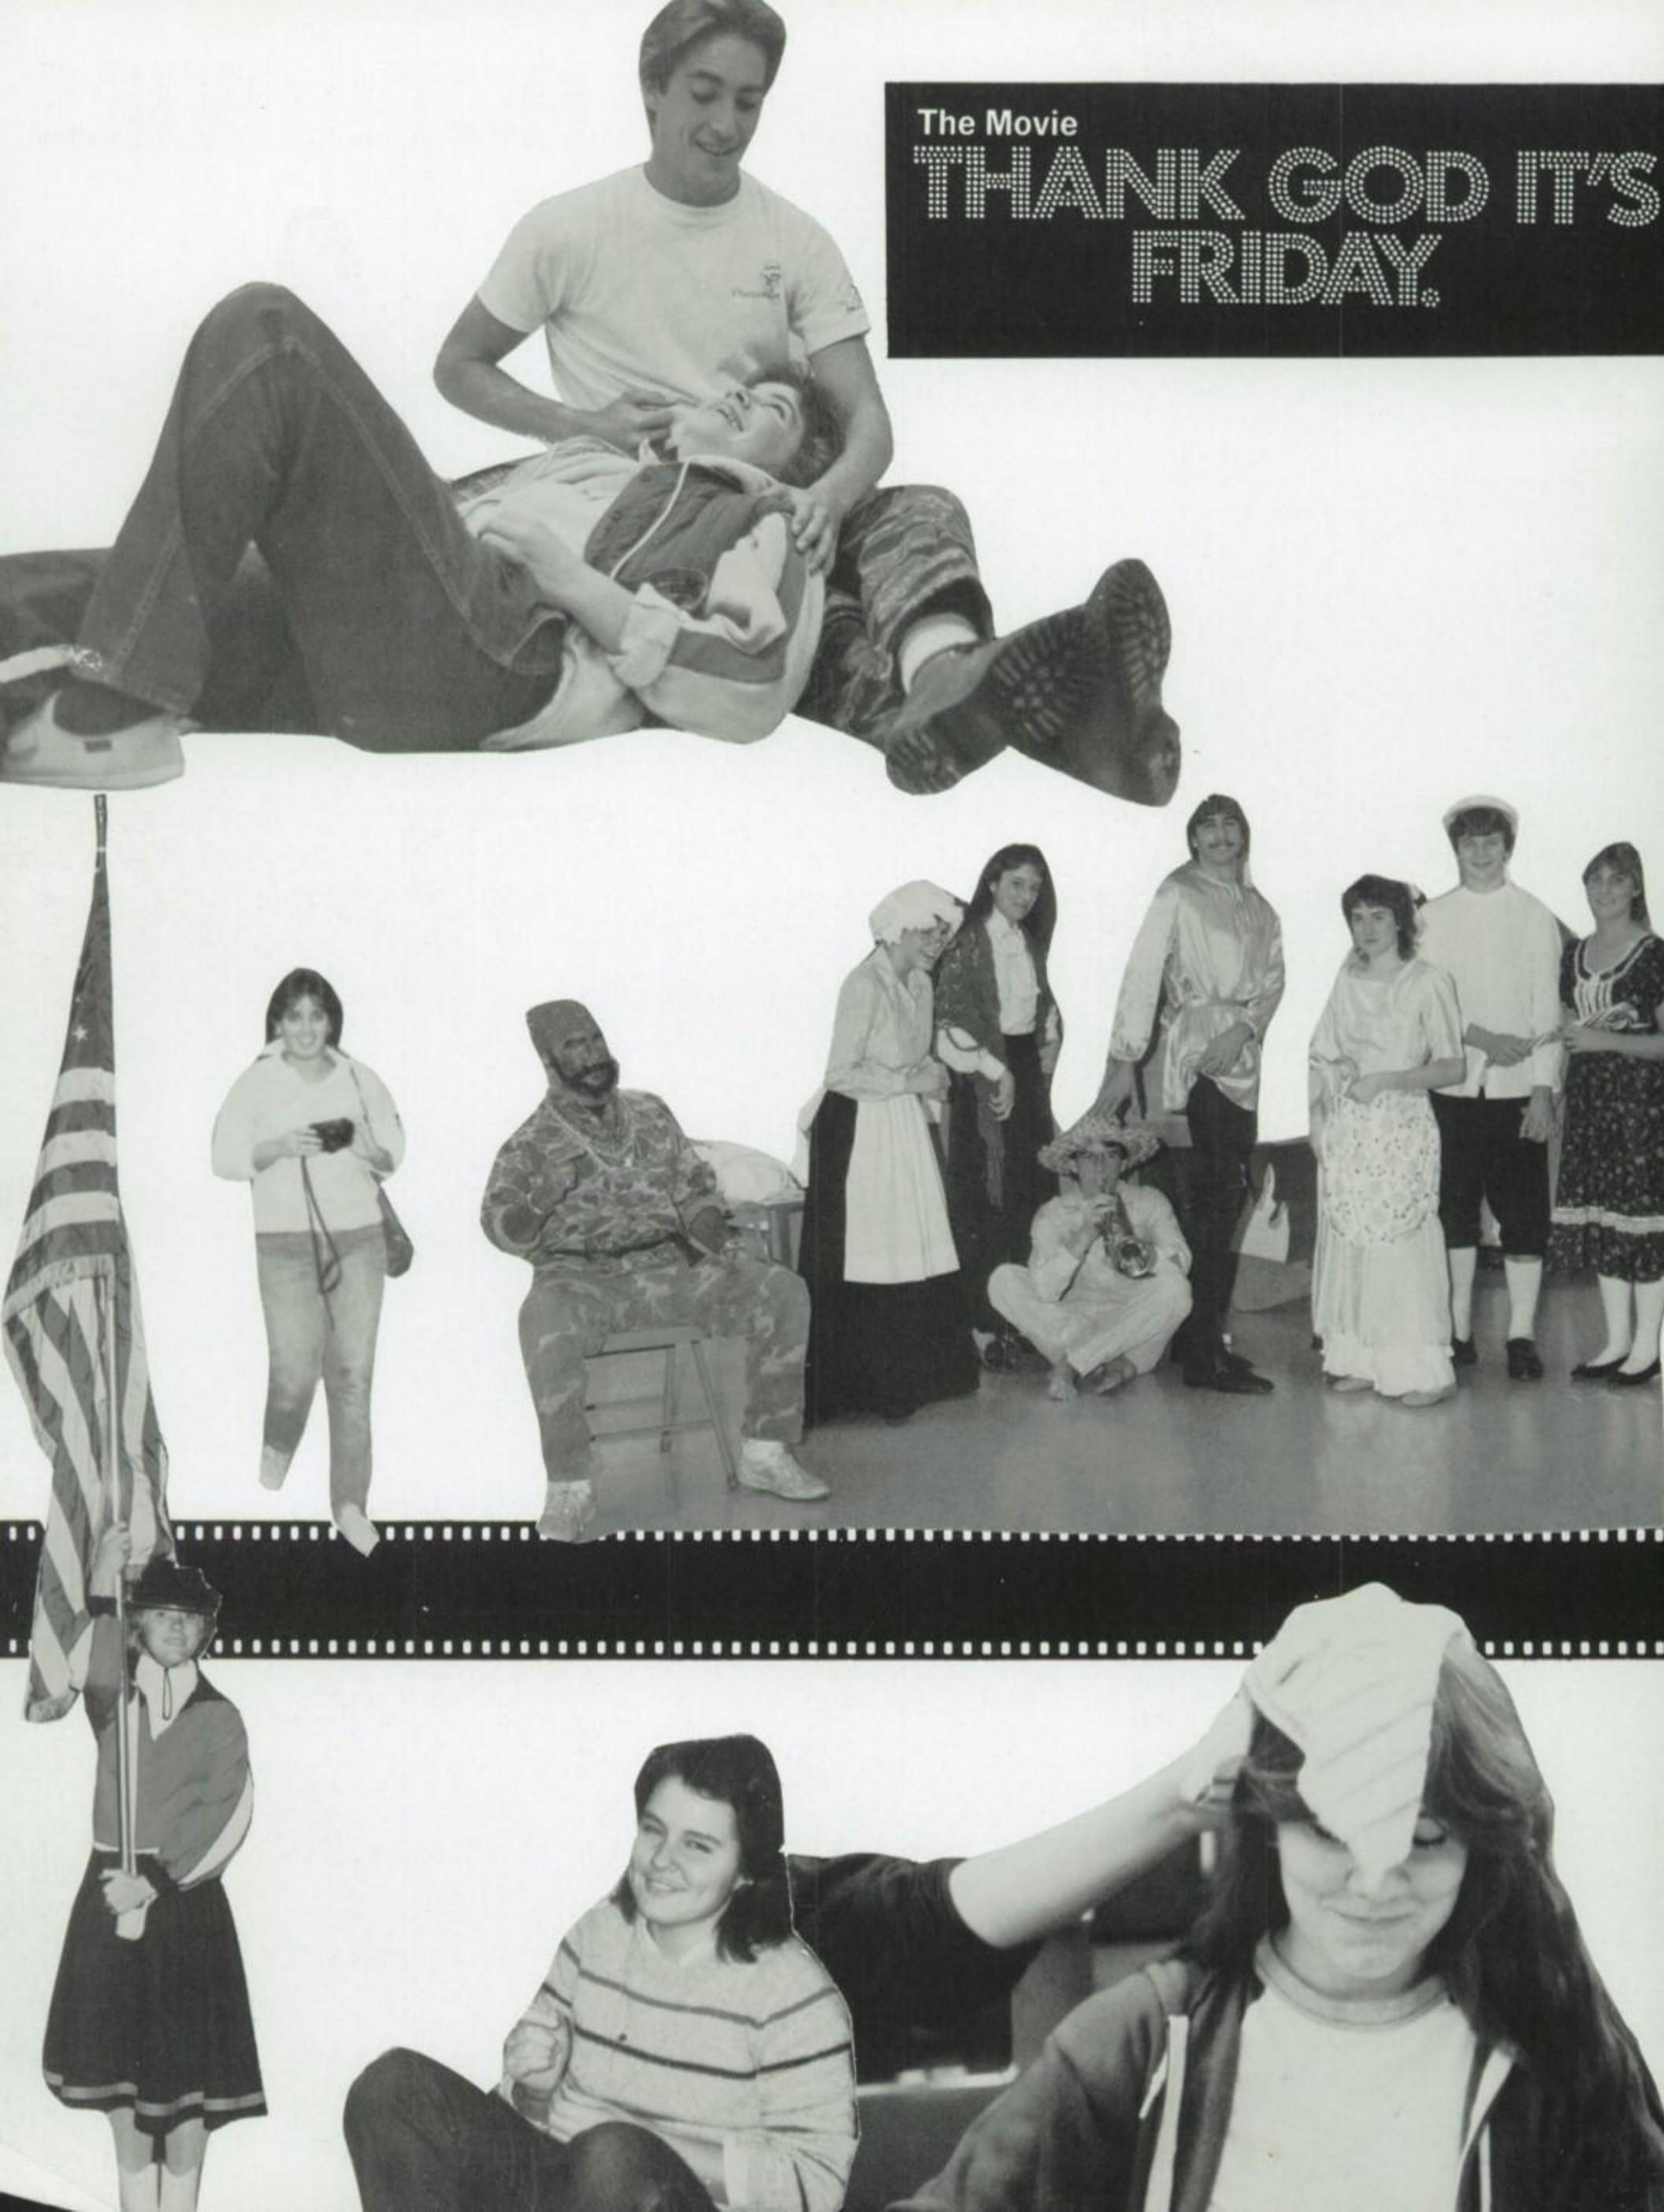

NICEST CAR — Yvette Moyer, Todd King
BEST LOOKING — Loren Holtz, Todd King
MOST ORIGINAL — Gina Downin, Scott Baily
DONE MOST FOR SENIOR CLASS — Marsha Berchtold, Kurt Johnson

Now that Kurt Johnson and Diane Frushour have moved up in the world of comedy LAUREL & HARDY are going to have a tough time finding jobs.

Fancy Ireland and Pat McHugh qualify for stunt drivers in SMOKEY AND THE BANDIT.

The Movie

THANK GOD IT'S FRIDAY.

JAWS

FALL CHEERLEADERS

Cheerleading to me, is a lot of things. All of it's worthwhile, though, because of the memories it brings.

I'd like to thank each one of you for being in some way special for what you do.

First Libby, my Co, tride and true, "Simpleton" she remembered every game without a clue.

Next is Angie dancing to Woe, Woe, Woe, And she played her guitar solo to the Gigolo.

In her short skirt and dimples was Lar, who often a times locked her keys in her car.

Robanne also added spark to the squad, with her valley girl talk of "oh my God!"

It's all been great but couldn't have been without one, Harriet, Mrs. Buxbaum, helped a ton.

I'd like to give her my love and thank her very much, and the same to my fellow cheerleaders cheerleaders, let's keep in touch.

Friends we are and friends we'll be,
Cheerleaders so faithfully,
Friends we are and friends we'll be,
'Till we meet again.

Sincerely,
Your Captain, 1983-84,
Loren

The 1983-84 fall varsity cheerleaders includes Laurie Johnson, Angie Pope, Robanne Palmer, Claudine Weinstein, Ann Crummitt, and Debbie Spiegel, with Loren Hotz as captain and Libby Saucier as Co-captain.

The JV squad includes Jenni Stevens, Hollin Bartman, Gwyn Delauter, Jennifer Peksenak, and Karen Pope, with Linda Matia as captain and Melissa Browning as co-captain.

WINTER CHEERLEADERS

The 1983-84 Winter cheerleaders were combined into one Varsity squad. The members included four freshman, Renee Miller, Cheryl Burgess, Stacey Henry, and Valerie Smith.

Other members include Shari Lewis at Co-captain and the senior members include Renee Reckly, Karen Wright and Robanne Palmer as Captain.

Under the supervision of Mrs. Harriet Buxbaum, the cheerleaders cheered for boys and girls varsity home games, and play-offs.

I I've almost spent a lot! I expect it's as fun, as well. I hope you will have a terrific time when the monster is over.
I'll see you over there next Friday.

Brigitte,

May you always roll in Chocolate and Pretzels. Thanks for all the fun over the years both at lunch & in class.
Keep in touch through the years and don't forget me.

LOVE,
Amy

Briggs,

You are still half-way sane after all these years? I thought that the monster would have taken over by now. There is still time for you to schedule an appointment with my mother. Maybe if I had your father, brother, and two sisters locked away instead. Anyway, you have survived your Senior year.
Thanks for all the interesting comments during football games and for the help in colorguard - Good luck at Frostburg. May you will become an FBI agent aftewards so you can — all those rapists.

Michelle

Brightie,
This has been me knowing you having this year, even though we haven't been closer together. You're really no & funny class, even though you do it don't know person. Good luck in everything you do, but don't worry.
Take care,
John
